

GENERAL MANAGER

Brasserie Surréaliste was founded with the vision to escape reality and make people dream again. 1500sqm in the heart of Brussels exploring beer, food, art & music in a surreal environment. In the vibrant district of Dansaert, the iconic Art Deco building of 1932, previously a banana warehouse has been reaffected into a brewery and restaurant looking like no other in the world.

To fulfill our vision, we're looking for a superstar General Manager to join our team for the new season. Your mission is to manage the day to day running of our project and to elevate the experience to the full potential of this incredible space.

Your mission:

- Responsible of all operations to run the bar and restaurant.
- You have the customer in mind first and ensure an amazing experience (up to 200cv per night)
- You supervise and co-ordinate floor, bar and kitchen team
- You train an efficient and friendly team, inspiring and motivating them
- You manage staff planning and optimize with regards to costs
- Work closeby with our booking Manager for bookings, group bookings and corporate events
- Ensure excellent collaboration between bar, kitchen and floor teams.
- Implement Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) to optimize service and processes
- You implement and monitor safety and quality guidelines such as HACCP
- You solve all kind of problems and find solutions to them.
- You are responsible for overall administration & financials
- You are responsible for the P&L, keep the costs under control and make your best to achieve the target turnover
- You control the product orders and inventories
- You participate in recruiting the fix employees, students and flexi

Your skills:

- Diploma in hospitality management with min. 3 year's experience in large restaurant venues or hotel
- Experience as a manager and strong leadership skills

- You have a great and positive energy, a proactive attitude and a team spirit
- You act as an owner and don't count your time
- You are results oriented and very well organized
- Boundless passion for hospitality
- Flemish/French speaking, and English

What we offer

- Unique chance to work in a diverse environment with a cool young team
- A motivating job with impact and development opportunities
- Full time CDI job with attractive salary and benefits